

CH. GEMSTONE SPOILED TO PERFECTION

"PIXIE"

Meet Pixie, Ch Gemstone Spoiled To Perfection, whose name fits her to a tee. She is owned by Cecelia Ruggles, owner of "J.R." the top winning Bichon of all time, Beth Dowd, Carol Dowd and Jewel Elias. She was bred by Jewel and Mitchell Elias, Gemstone Bichons Frises.

Pixie has a beautifully proportioned face with coal-black pigment; her halos, which are also coal-black, give her that soft, beautiful expression which is so pleasing to the eye, and of course she has that happy disposition that is a hallmark of our breed. Besides her ebony pigment, against a white powder-puff coat, Pixie's structure allows her to move effortlessly, with style and elegance. Judge Frank Sabella awarded Pixie BISS, at the 2008 Bichon Frisé Club of America National Specialty. In his written critique, Judge Sabella stated that Pixie was "a bitch of great quality. She is correct in her proportion, has a beautiful head and eye and is faultless in movement."

Pixie's story started long before her litter was whelped. Pixie's dam Am, Brazilian, Pan Am, Gr and Int. Ch Milk 'N Honey Of Bianco Puro, an import from Brazil, produced many outstanding puppies but this being her last litter, the perfect sire had to be found. With the help and guidance of Carolyn and Sacha Farnsworth, one of their older sires was decided upon and Honey was sent to Carolyn to be bred to "Mr. Bentley," Ch Lyndale Encountering Bentley. The result was six unusual puppies. They did not look like Honey's previous litters; these puppies were gray with some white hair, black noses and black ears. They were interesting specimens to say the least. This was definitely the case where the ugly ducklings all turned into beautiful swans! They were all beautiful but there was something special about Pixie, she was definitely "the little Bichon with the big attitude."

In 2007, Pixie was the #1 Bichon Frisé and she continues to rank #1 in 2008. She can boast of 11 Best in Show ribbons and over 80 Group One placements. Pixie is expertly handled by her best buddy, Scott Sommer although she won her first BIS when handled by Scott's assistant Adam Peterson! Thank you Scott and Adam for presenting Pixie so beautifully!
